

Remote Control: The choice is yours

Self-control is choosing to do what you should even when you don't want to.

MEMORY VERSE

"God's power has given us everything we need to lead a godly life."
2 Peter 1:3a, NlrV

Bible Story

Choose Your Words Carefully
Proverbs 12:18

How can words make things better?

Weekly Cues

Remote Control: The choice is yours

Self-control is choosing to do what you should even when you don't want to.

MEMORY VERSE

"God's power has given us everything we need to lead a godly life."
2 Peter 1:3a, NlrV

Bible Story

Choose Your Words Carefully
Proverbs 12:18

How can words make things better?

Weekly Cues

Preteen

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

Start your kid's day off with encouragement by giving them permission to brag about something they accomplished lately—big or small.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask: "What is something someone said to you—either verbally or written—that meant a lot to you? What is something you've said or wrote to someone else that helped them?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What's something that's made you laugh out loud recently? What made it so funny to you?" (Make sure you share too.)

Bed Time

You may want to use this time to apologize to your child for a time you didn't think before you spoke, and maybe said something harmful. Also, ask God to help you will both use your words wisely.

Preteen

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

Start your kid's day off with encouragement by giving them permission to brag about something they accomplished lately—big or small.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask: "What is something someone said to you—either verbally or written—that meant a lot to you? What is something you've said or wrote to someone else that helped them?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What's something that's made you laugh out loud recently? What made it so funny to you?" (Make sure you share too.)

Bed Time

You may want to use this time to apologize to your child for a time you didn't think before you spoke, and maybe said something harmful. Also, ask God to help you will both use your words wisely.