JESUS' SECOND MIRACLE

Jesus went back to Cana, a city in Galilee. This was the same city where Jesus had turned the water into special grape juice at a wedding.

At this time, a man living nearby needed Jesus' help. The man was one of the king's important officials, and his son was very sick. So when the man heard Jesus had come to Galilee, he went to see Jesus.

The man said to Jesus, "Please come heal my son! He is very sick. He is about to die!"

Jesus told him, "You people must see signs and miracles before you will believe in Me."

The man said again, "Sir, please come heal my son before he dies."

Jesus said, "Your son will live." The man believed Jesus was telling the truth.

The man began his journey back home. But before he even got home, the man's servants came out to meet him. They had very good news!

"Your son is alive!" they said. "He isn't sick anymore!"

"What time did he get better?" the man asked. The servants told him when his son got better. It was the same time Jesus had said, "Your son will live."

Jesus had healed the boy! The man believed in Jesus, and so did everyone who lived in his house.
