AM Sermon Notes:

Walking with God in obedience is always right, even if we're struggling with it.

Walking with God in His covenant is done according to God's terms, not ours.

Walking with God begins and ends in Worship.

Questions for application:

Can you think of a time you believed God was leading you to do something you were unsure about?

How is God calling you to humble yourself and follow His commands and leading?

How can you change your schedule to make sure you have times of worship every day?

Weekly challenge: Pray to God and ask him to reveal the ways you try to worship him according to your own terms and commit to living your faith according to God's terms
